Hoosiers Hold Edge On Huskers

By DON BRYANT

Sports Information Director

Nebraska football fans who have long memories will be reminiscing today about the "Good Old Days" when the Huskers held a pat hand against the Indiana Hoosiers.

Younger Husker followers won't have many pleasant memories because Nebraska hasn't defeated an Indiana team since the 1940 Rose Bowl squad managed a 13-7 victory here at Memorial Stadium.

Since that game—which got Nebraska back on the road to Roses after an opening 13-7 loss to National Champion Minnesota—the Cornhuskers have dropped nine straight to the Hoosiers from Bloomington.

It has even been a long time since the Huskers have lost to Indiana, since the series was halted after the 1959 game. All told, Indiana leads the series, 3-9-3, with Nebraska winning 13-9 and 7-0 in 1936 and 1937, and again in 1940. Ties of 0-0 and 7-7 in 1938 and 1939 put the Husker mark at 3-0-2 after five years, but the Hoosiers took charge in 1941 and won the next nine games.

Indiana got sweet revenge in the years to come because the Hoosiers piled up seven of the nine wins between 1941 and 1959 right here at Memorial Stadium.

There's another nostalgic note to today's game. Bill Orwig was Nebraska's Athletic Director from 1954 to 1961 when the Huskers made the transition from Athletic Board to Athletic Director administration. And before he left, Orwig organized several of the fund-raising groups that have contributed so greatly to Nebraska's success in athletics.

Bill Orwig retired this year as Athletic Director at Indiana University, but he has returned to Lincoln for today's game and a reunion with his old Nebraska friends.

All Cornhuskers join in welcoming back Bill Orwig, Coach Lee Corso and the fine Indiana Hoosiers.

Adrian David Estate Totals $3.3 Million

An anticipated income of $200,000 a year from a $3.3 million residual estate is expected to provide additional scholarships to Nebraska high school graduates, support for faculty scholarly activities, and an annual lectureship on the University's Lincoln Campuses.

The University of Nebraska Foundation, which is the beneficiary, said the income will come from the John C. and Nettie V. David Memorial Trust, established by the estate of the late Adrian H. David, prominent Minneapolis, Minn. attorney.

Harry R. Haynie, Foundation president, called the bequest the largest in the 39-year history of the Foundation.

1908 Graduate of NU

The late Mr. David, who died in 1973 at the age of 85, was a native of Pawnee City and graduated from the Culver Military Academy. In 1908, he earned his law degree from the University of Nebraska and moved to Minneapolis, where he conducted an active law practice.

All of the benefits of the Trust will be named in honor of Mr. David's parents, John C. and Nettie V. David. In the early 1900's the family lived in Lincoln at 1827 B Street. The elder David was a banker and owned the First National Bank of Pawnee City, among others.

Scholarships to Top Students

Beginning in the fall of 1976 one half of the annual income will go to scholarships for top graduating seniors in Nebraska high schools, as an adjunct to the Regents Scholarship program. In addition, approximately $40,000 will be used to support scholarships for upperclassmen with high academic records, according to Chancellor James H. Zumberge.

The support for faculty scholarly activities, approximately $60,000 annually, will be awarded by the Faculty Research Council, with preference to cancer-related research, Dr. Zumberge said.

An annual David Memorial Lectureship, supported by $5,000 will allow the invitation to a distinguished scholar who will spend two weeks on campus giving public and classroom lectures and conducting seminars.

Law College Building: Designed for the Future

By Robert Sheldon
Assistant Director
University Information

The new College of Law Building

A large lecture room

The Student Commons

The new split level brick and concrete building which houses the University of Nebraska-Lincoln College of Law was built with the future in mind.

Located on East Campus, northeast of the College of Dentistry, the new building replaces a facility constructed in 1912 and long recognized as being inadequate. The new structure, which will allow the College to increase its enrollment, was designed by Dana-Larson-Roubal and Associates of Omaha. It was formally dedicated on May 1.

Nearly two-thirds of the Law College's net assignable area is for the library. Room is provided for 150,000 volumes, and another 75,000 volumes can be stored in the lower floor area reserved for library expansion.

The lower level of the college portion of the building houses the Student Commons, a mall-like area including student lounges, lockers, luncheon rooms and office space for student organizations.

Administrative offices, classrooms, lecture rooms and moot (practice) courts occupy the ground floor of the college portion. A deck on this level overlooks the Student Commons and provides a splendid vista from which to view William Saltzman's large mural, a wall sculpture made possible by a gift from the Duane W. Acklie family.

THE TOUCHDOWN CLUB OF NEBRASKA

One of the groups most instrumental in helping the University of Nebraska Athletic Department grow in the field of inter-collegiate sports is the Nebraska Touchdown Club.

Contributions from TD Club members have enabled the Cornhuskers to build a fine grant-in-aid program and continued support from the Touchdown Club, and groups like the Husker Achievement Awards, the Extra Point Club, and the Cornhusker Beef Club, will insure that the Nebraska Cornhuskers will always hold a prominent place in the college sports world.

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department salutes the many members of the Touchdown Club and takes this opportunity to say a sincere "Thank You."

Touchdown Club members contributing $100 or more are:

what it isn't."

Some people tell us our name's confusing. They get us mixed up with credit bureaus and labor unions.

A credit bureau we're not.

Credit bureaus keep track of how you pay your bills. They report on your credit rating.

And we aren't a labor union.

Labor unions work with management on wages, working conditions and fringe benefits.

What we are is a credit union.

A credit union is a financial organization. Formed by people with a "common bond." They may work for the same company, live in the same community, or belong to the same group. They save money together on a regular basis, then loan that money to each other at favorable interest rates.

A credit union is owned by its members and run by its members. It's not in business to make a profit, but to help people. Take it from a member. It's worth looking into.

For more information about credit unions contact the Nebraska Credit Union League 4315 Frances St. Omaha, Nebr. 68105 or call (toll free) 1-800 642 8402

Join your credit union.

Is YOUR Insurance Agent on this list?

The following list of independent insurance agencies in Nebraska comprises the membership of the Nebraska Association of Independent Insurance Agents, a professional association dedicated to the highest order of service for car, home, and business insurance.

In addition to serving YOU, the customer, first, these professional agents also sponsor the following important activities:

1. The DEFENSIVE DRIVING PROGRAM.
2. The Nebraska EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICE, built around the "911" telephone system, which could save your life in an emergency.
3. The INSURANCE YOUTH CLASSIC, a national golf tournament for young men and women under 18 years of age, involving play on a national level with touring professionals.
4. DRIVER EDUCATION training for young and old alike.
5. Televising of the final games of the Nebraska HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT.
6. Active support of local POLICE and FIRE DEPARTMENTS.
7. Support of the NEBRASKA SAFETY COUNCIL.
8. Support of Big Red Football!!!!

*Your independent insurance agent is
THE INSURANCE CONSUMER'S CHAMPION.
He (or she) is a great guy or gal to know and work with.*

Pick a winner from the top ten teams of '75

by Tom Siler, Knoxville NEWS-SENTINEL

THE TEAMS DISCUSSED HERE ARE LISTED ALPHABETICALLY, NOT RANKED ACCORDING TO ANY PERSONAL GUESTIMATE. IT IS UP TO YOU TO READ THE FACTS INVOLVED AND PICK THE WINNERS.

Alabama

Paul (Bear) Bryant is definitely not one of the weeping willows in college coaching. Now 62, he tells his friends—who quickly transmit it abroad—that his 1975 Alabama football team will probably be the best team he ever had. That covers a bit of territory for a grizzled, greying veteran of 30 years as a head coach.

Alabama, in a word, is loaded. You name it, Alabama has it. And, remember, the 1973 and 1974 Bryant editions missed national championships by a total margin of three points. A national title rested on the outcome of the 1973 Sugar Bowl game. Notre Dame won, 24-23. Last year the situation was much the same in the Orange Bowl. Alabama lost, 13-11.

Is the third time the charm? Bryant has Richard Todd at quarterback, the rangy senior who, two years ago, was tapped by the Bear as having a greater potential than Joe Namath. Bryant hasn't said that lately, but Todd is a good runner and thrower who sometimes makes a mistake. Willie Shelby, Calvin Culliver, James Taylor and Johnny Davis give the Tide superior runners.

The offensive line is sound if not the quickest in the world. Bryant's defense is always rugged. The outstanding rock on defense is Leroy Cook, 220-pound end, who is already tapped as a first round choice. Woodrow Lowe, a regular for three years, is back as a super linebacker and Greg Montgomery isn't bad, either. Charles Hannah, younger brother of John, will be a standout at defensive tackle. All in all, Bear's 31st season as a head coach might be his best and his last.

Michigan

An outstanding defense and a favorable early season schedule will carry Bo Schembechler's Michigan Wolverines a long way this season. Under the fundamental-minded head coach, Michigan has a six-year record of 58-5-1, best in the nation. But four years out of the six Ohio State, the final foe annually, has knocked the Wolverines out of the Rose Bowl trip.

The Michigan defense counts heavily on the services of linebacker Don Dufek (35)

Such was the case in 1974 when Michigan won 10 in a row then lost to the Bucks, 12-10. Now, Michigan is loaded on defense. The defense might be better than last year when the 11 foes were limited to 6.8 points per game, best record in the nation. Don Dufek, 195-pound cornerback or roving linebacker, leads this platoon that also has a top level front five—Tim Davis, quick and aggressive mid-guard; Jeff Perlinger and Greg Morton, tackles, and Dave Jilek and Mike Holmes, who protect the flanks.

On offense, Bo's biggest job is to find a capable quarterback to replace Dennis Franklin. Mike Ezlinga, 195 pound junior, gets first crack at the job. The quarterback, whoever he is, will have lots of help. Schembechler says Gordon Bell is as good a tailback as any man in the country. He ranks Rob Lytle almost as good. Jim Smith, says Bo, is the best receiver in his 6 years on the job. A solid blocking line rounds out the winning ensemble. Michigan has done everything but grab the brass ring. This could be the year.

Nebraska

The Cornhuskers had a "terrible" record last season . . . 9-3-0 and 5-2-0 in the Big Eight. Big Red partisans hope for better things, such as a victory over favored Oklahoma. That's asking a lot of Coach Tom Osborne, who says he doesn't even know who will quarterback the team. David Humm, the 6'-4", southpaw hummer, graduated and that set off a five-man struggle in the spring for the choice assignment.

Best guess is that the starting role will fall to Terry Luck, the obscure reserve who ran the team for almost all of the Sugar Bowl victory over Florida. But he could be challenged by Vince Ferragamo, transfer from California who passes well, versatile Tim Soreley, Randy Garcia or Ed Burns. Whoever the quarterback, he will have lots of help.

Coach Osborne says Cornhusker running backs "are the best in years." Tony Davis is the star of the bunch, one of the finest anywhere. John O'Leary is strong and durable and Sophomore Monte Anthony proved himself last year. Dave Shamblin heads up the receivers, a starring role in the Cornhusker scheme of things where they feature deadly passes off the 'I' formation. Rik Bonness, 225 lbs., provides expert blocking at center.

On defense Osborne has four returning starters up front and battle-tested linebackers. Three secondary veterans are ready again, the best being Wonder Monds, a likely All-American. The Cornhuskers play the first five games at home, always a help. They will be good, but can they beat Oklahoma?

Notre Dame

Ara Parseghian will be a tough act to follow. Dan Devine, the new man at Notre Dame, has the toughest job in football, at least for this year. Ara's 11-year record under the Golden Dome is surpassed only by Knute Rockne's 13 years at the helm. He produced two national titles, won three of five bowl games and put the Irish in the Top Ten nine times.

Devine, a solid winner at Missouri before taking on the Green Bay pro job for four years, faces a major task in rebuilding the offense. Tom Clements, a three-year regular at quarterback, has departed and so have Wayne Bullock and Eric Penick, fine runners, along with Pete Demmerle, pass catching star, and Gerry Dinardo, All-American blocking guard. In fact, 10 of the offensive starters of 1974 are gone, but Devine still has 34 letter winners returning for offense and defense.

Frank Allocco is the likely No. 1 quarterback, but he'll be pushed by Kurt Horton and Joe Montana, the star of the spring game. Art Best, a good runner suspended part of last season, will take over Bullock's old power spot. Mark McLane, Terry Eurick and Jim Weiler will be fighting for the heavy duty at halfback.

Most of the defense returns, the leader being 265-pound Steve Niehaus, whose younger brother is at Alabama. The Irish secondary should be among the nation's best. Devine inherited a schedule that is tougher than many in recent years, but the betting is that the Irish will wind up in the Top Ten again.

Ohio State

Woody Hayes has plenty of firepower at Ohio State, which lost only to Michigan State and Southern California a year ago. The potent 1974 backfield is back... Heisman winner Archie Griffin, Quarterback Cornelius Greene, Wingback Brian Baschnagel and Fullback Pete Johnson, a four-some that averaged six yards per running play, and running is what the Buckeyes do best.

The one, the only, Archie Griffin.

Griffin, of course, has proved himself to be the best halfback runner in the nation in the last three years. He gained almost 1700 yards in 1974 and was good for a first down every two times he carried the ball. Few quarterbacks can match the pass-run talents of Greene, who hit 58 out of 97 passes and ran for a magnificent 842 yards.

However, Ohio's supporting cast will not be as good; that is, the block-

New Faces In The Big-8 To Watch

by Don Creedon, Boulder DAILY CAMERA

College football, by its very nature, must present a constantly changing cast of characters, and, in the Big Eight Conference, the kaleidoscope of new faces in 1975 will include:

—Charlie Johnson of Colorado, a 6'-3", 282-pound defensive tackle who was agile and active enough as a tight end to earn junior college All-American honors at Tyler, Tex., last fall after making 32 receptions.

—Vince Ferragamo of Nebraska, a quarterback who played ahead of last year's No. 1 pro draftee, Cal's Steve Bartkowski, for most of two seasons at Berkeley before transferring to Lincoln.

—Bill Dalke of Oklahoma, a red-shirt sophomore linebacker who received an appointment to Air Force Academy, but decided at the last minute to opt instead for the Sooner program. Dalke's a fighter, though. Make no mistake about it. "He just knocks the daylight out of people," says Sooner head man Barry Switzer who must replace All-American Linebacker Rod Shoate.

—Joe Hatcher of Kansas State, a passing quarterback cut from the same prep background as former Stanford great Mike Boylra. Both were all-state basketball players at Denver's Regis High School, but overlooked as football quarterbacks in their home state.

—James Taylor of Missouri, an offensive tackle with awesome dimensions (6'5" by 250 pounds) who went out in the spring and challenged a Tiger veteran considered all-conference calibre, D. W. Johnston, for a starting job.

—Dennis Wright of Kansas, a 6'-2", 210-pound junior fullback who was obscured in the Jayhawks' junior varsity program until new coach Bud Moore stepped in and found him to be just what KU needed to bolster its Wishbone-T attack.

—Charles Loggins, a 6'-2", 210-pound Oklahoma State freshman who could be a contender for playing time at tight end, fullback or linebacker as a rookie. Loggins, from tiny Grandfield, Okla. (population: 1,606), was considered a cinch University of Oklahoma catch until he surprisingly signed an OSU letter on the morning of the first signing date. It was one of the very few recruiting setbacks suffered by OU.

—Greg Pittman of Iowa State, a 6'-3", 218-pound transfer linebacker the Cyclones expect to step right in and replace graduated standout Brad Storm. Pittman, who has 4.7 speed, is one of three Tampa U. transfers who will be eligible immediately for ISU after the Florida school, where ISU coach Earle Bruce served prior to going to Ames, gave up football. "Pittman is a super prospect," says one pro scout. "He might have been Tampa's second number one pro draft choice. At worst, he's certainly a first rounder."

The above players are not necessarily the best of the pure newcomers to Big Eight football, but they represent a very good cross-section of the talent coming into the league—talent coming from another banner year in the recruiting wars for high school and junior college players, from last year's frosh squads, from red-shirt and junior varsity programs and from the transfer ranks.

The most publicized newcomer to the Big Eight football ranks is unquestionably a freshman halfback at Oklahoma—Billy Sims, a 6'-0", 195-pound legend from Hooks, Tex., who rushed for 2,885 yards last fall in running his career statistics to an eye-popping 7,738 yards and 86 touchdowns. Even on a team with a Joe Washington and Elvis Peacock, Sims, who has 4.4 speed for the 40, figures to play a great deal.

Here is a school-by-school rundown on the top new faces going into the 1975 season:

COLORADO

Coach Bill Mallory is counting heavily on Johnson, a service veteran who was a high school fullback at West Columbia Tex., on a 3-A state runnerup team which had former CU great Charlie Davis at tailback, to almost single-handedly turn around CU's defensive line.

ing line. Only two of the 1974 starters return—Ted Smith, guard, and Scott Dannelley, tackle. The new men up front are of excellent potential, but few played against Michigan, Michigan State and USC a year ago.

The defense must be rebuilt, too, which makes the Bucks possibly vulnerable in early season collisions with Michigan State, Penn State and UCLA. Only five returning defenders played more than 100 minutes a year ago—Nick Buonamici, tackle; Ken Kuhn and Ken Thompson, linebackers; Tim Fox and Bruce Ruhl, safeties. But it's pertinent to note also that Coach Hayes has a total of 39 letter winners at his disposal, which undoubtedly indicates another powerful fall campaign for the Buckeyes.

Oklahoma

Out in the Sooner badlands the general feeling is that all other teams are playing for second place. That could be. The Oklahoma team was undefeated last year and won a share of the national title even though probation barred them from television and bowl action.

Coach Barry Switzer hasn't lost a game in his two years at the helm, and undeniably, Oklahoma is loaded again, presenting great speed and impressive size on offense and defense.

The star of stars is Joe Washington, who rushed for 1,321 yards in his junior year and scored 12 touchdowns. He also returned 24 punts for 332 yards. An authentic Heisman Trophy contender, Joe has the dazzling skills that make him a constant touchdown threat.

But the Big Eight foes cannot afford to "key" on Washington. Switzer admits as much, saying the 1975 unit should be the best backfield ever at this school. Steve Davis is a superior quarterback and Elvis Peacock, a flashy sophomore who had a fine freshman year. Tinker Owens paces the pass catchers although the Sooners don't need to throw a lot.

Quickness is the trademark of the Oklahoma defense. At nose guard Dewey Selmon, 248 lbs., intimidates the foe. His brother, LeRoy, 259 lbs., roams far and wide from defensive tackle.

In a word, Oklahoma is a team with all the tools, including a schedule that isn't the toughest. The Sooners entertain Oregon and Pittsburgh, travel to Miami for an engagement with the Hurricane. The fourth non-league game, of course, brings on Texas in the big one in Dallas. The Sooners might lose one, no more.

Penn State

Coach Joe Paterno makes it look easy . . . he's a big winner every year, a steady tenant among the Top Ten, and a bowl visitor every season, or almost.

Penn State hasn't had a losing season in 37 years, an enviable record certain to be extended in 1975. Furthermore, Paterno has the best won-lost record, 85-15-9, for his nine years as the boss, and has taken the Lions to seven bowl games in eight years, including a rousing 41-20 rout of Baylor in the last Cotton Bowl show.

Once again the Lions will be a contender for the No. 1 spot. Offensively, Paterno must find solid replacements for Quarterback Tom Shuman and Fullback Tom Donchez. Jon Andress is the likely new quarterback who must throw as well as run in the Penn State attack. Duane Taylor succeeds Donchez, joining with Rusty Boyle and the speed man, Jimmy Cefalo, to provide the weapons in a varied attack. The offensive line will be an exceedingly strong point, headed by Tom Rafferty at guard.

The defense will be more of a problem. The front four must be rebuilt around John Quinn, tackle, and Dennis Zmudzin. Linebacking, always a strong Lion unit, will be excellent again. Greg Buttle, who led the team in recovered fumbles, tackles and pass interceptions last fall, shows the way to Linebackers Jim Rosecrans, Kurt Alderman, Ron Crosby and Richard Kriston.

Prospects for a "great" season or just a good one hinges on an early season collision with Ohio State in Columbus.

Southern California

Southern California is defending the national championship which is nothing new for the Trojans. In 15 years under Coach John McKay, USC has won four national titles, nine Pacific-8 titles and five out of nine Rose Bowl games.

Before too long Johnson may have help from two other newcomers—junior college transfer Dave Rice (6'-4", 225, El Camino, Calif.) at defensive end and freshman Ruben Vaughan (6'-4", 237, Jordan High School in Los Angeles) at nose guard. Vaughan was perhaps the best of CU's frosh recruits. From Watts, he's far more mature than the average college freshman and has been self-supporting since his soph year in high school.

Colorado may also start Jucos on defense at closed side linebacker in Bill Muxlow (6'-2", 219, Bakersfield, Calif.) and closed side halfback in Mike Davis (6'-3", 198, East Los Angeles).

The Buffs went into the JC ranks for 10 players, and quarterback Jeff Austin (6'-4", 215, El Camino) and tailback Tony Reed (5'-11", 195, Antelope Valley, Calif.) are going to play a great deal, too. Austin, a second-team JC All-American (JC Grid Wire) threw for 1,899 yards and 19 touchdowns last fall. He is likened to former Nebraska great Jerry Tagge by CU coaches, who see the South Torrance native as a durable and effective runner as well as an excellent passer. Reed, in running for 1,432 yards and 19 touchdowns, was voted small school JC Player of the Year in California. "I got me a tailback now who'll run north and south," grinned Mallory after Reed was the running star of CU's spring game.

A number of freshmen might get a chance to help on defense at Colorado, too—folks like linebackers Stuart Walker (East Rockford, Ill.) and Brian McCabe (Cherry Creek, Colo.) and defensive backs Timmy Roberts (Arvada, Colo.), Tony Allen (Bakersfield, Calif.) and Howard Ballage (Pueblo, Colo.).

IOWA STATE

Pittman is not the only Tampa transfer likely to help the Cyclones, who were among the first to have an assistant on the Tampa campus when the school gave up football.

Otis Rodgers a 6'-4", 230-pound defensive end who was a 2-year regular at Tampa, and Jimmy Randolph, a 6'-2", 180-pound cornerback, are the other "recruits" from the Florida school bidding for starting jobs at ISU.

A fourth transfer in the Cyclones' picture is offensive guard Joe Seymour, a 6'-3", 230-pounder from Waldorf, Ia., J.C., who played in high school in Iowa with Iowa State center Jeff Jones.

The newcomer everybody in Ames can hardly wait to see cavort at ISU's new 50,000-seat stadium is freshman halfback Dexter Green, 5'-10", 180-pounder from Woodbridge, Va., who is being called a Joe Washington-type of halfback after running for 2,368 yards and 19 touchdowns as a prep senior at the suburban Washington, D.C., school.

Although Iowa State is experienced at fullback and tailback, two sophs moving up from last year's frosh group—6'-2", 230-pound Mike Larson of Harlan, Ia., and 6'-1", 190-pound Cal Cummins of Freeport, Ill.—are likely to see a good deal of action. Larson was the top prep player in the state of Iowa in 1973.

Last year's frosh class abounded with big, talented lineman, and one of the sophs-to-be now ready to make a contribution is 6'-6", 233-pound tackle Kevin Cunningham of Chicago. Another soph who has come on fast is one-time, walk-on linebacker Mark Settle (6'-3", 230, Nevada, Ia.) who will start opposite Pittman.

A defensive end sure to help the Cyclones is 230 lb. Otis Rodgers.

KANSAS

Wright (Mound City, Mo.) was one of the pleasant surprises of the spring at KU as he won the approval of Moore as the kind of fullback the Jayhawks had to have for the Wishbone. He'll have competition and help in the Fall from Norris Banks, a 6'-3", 190-pound transfer who ran for over 1,000 yards at Coffeyville, (Kan.), J.C., a year ago.

Another Juco who didn't come until the Fall, wide receiver Richard McAluiffe (6'-1", 175, Baltimore, Md.), will get an opportunity to play, too. McAluiffe was the number five JC receiver in the nation last year.

Wright was one of two JV program grads in KU's starting backfield going into the pre-season. The other was Scott McCamy, a one-time Missouri all-stater (St. Joseph's) who was converted from a running back into a quarterback.

Two sophomore lineman who could make Moore's first year at KU more enjoyable are 6'-3", 260-pound nose guard Jimmy Emerson, a Kansas all-stater (Great Bend) who switched over from offensive tackle after shedding nearly 40 pounds under the new coaching regime, and Rick Summers, a 6'-4", 250-pound tackle from Pompton Plains, N.J.

USC QB hopeful, Vince Evans.

McKay and his gang will not be favored in many quarters to repeat on the national level. The Trojans lost 14 of 22 starters, including Anthony Davis, the wonderfully durable runner who carried the ball for 1,354 yards and 13 touchdowns. As a Trojan, he even outdid the celebrated O.J. Simpson who preceded him by a few years.

This time around the Trojans begin without an offensive star. Vince Evans, who runs better than he throws, has the quarterbacking role formerly held by Pat Haden, now a Rhodes Scholar. Evans will get much rushing help from experienced fullbacks, mainly Dave Farmer and Ricky Bell.

The defense, at first glance, seems to be green, but it isn't. Gary Jeter, the wondrously gifted tackle, will provide the leadership for four 1974 regulars and seven others up from the second unit. Add the redshirts and 10 carefully selected Junior College grads and you get the picture.

"We'll be a solid team with a chance to develop into a good one," summarizes McKay. The schedule encourages just that. By the time USC runs through Duke, Oregon State, Purdue and Iowa you can expect them to be better than good. Again, this is the team to beat for the Pac-8 title and the Rose Bowl trip if not a national championship.

Texas Aggies

In four years Emory Bellard has transformed the Texas Aggies from a Southwest patsy to a power.

Coach Bellard has a chance to reap the rewards of four good recruiting years. He has 18 of the 22 starters back, 21 senior lettermen, 19 junior lettermen. Bellard says: "We've finally reached a point where we have four good classes and our depth should develop. This is the most mature and experienced squad since we took this job."

A few Southwest seers forecast a swing back to more passing, but Bellard is not even tempted. He helped Darrell Royal develop the Wishbone attack at Texas and now believes in it wholeheartedly:

"We believe in the Wishbone style of play and we intend to use three deep men in the backfield. We might vary once in a while, but not often. Of course, we'll try some variations we haven't used before, but I'm not going to say that we are going to throw a lot more, because we are not."

Bubba Bean will be the lead horse in the ground offense. He had a total offense of 938 yards as a junior and now says the Aggie goal is a national championship. The school had two other rushers in the conference's Top Ten which gives you the general idea.

Bellard's defense will be super. Two of the best are Blake Schwarz, a strong performer at one flank, and Pat Thomas, exceptional at cornerback. If they have good luck with no injuries the rejuvenated Aggies could win 'em all, including that final blood battle with Texas.

Defensive back, Pat Thomas of the Aggies.

UCLA

Dick Vermeil's first head coaching season was a solid success, blighted only by John Sciarra's broken leg against California. Thereafter, the Bruins were vulnerable, losing two of the last four for an overall record of 6-3-2.

Sciarra is the ideal offensive leader in the Veer or Wishbone attack. Rangy, lean and quick, he runs the triple option better than the coach draws it on the blackboard, exemplified by his 390 yards total offense in the 17-17 TV thriller with Tennessee early last year. Now, Sciarra has recovered completely from the broken leg and the UCLA offense should be something special.

Vermeil has provided lots of help for the quarterback, with Wendell Tyler and Eddie Ayers, experienced runners. Add the pass catching star, Norm Andersen, and three or four potentially dangerous new frosh or junior college runners and you have a point potential behind an exceptionally good offensive line.

The UCLA defense won't be that good, but their platoon will be better after early season acid tests against such non-conference rivals as Iowa State, Tennessee, Air Force and Ohio State, the latter making a rare appearance in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Linebacker Dale Curry is the only regular returning on the defense, but eight of the second unit are ready to cash in on their experience as reserves.

Mr and Mrs 'T' Bloody Mary mix

Vodka, gin, rum, tequila — even aquavit — never had it so good. Use 3 parts Mr and Mrs "T" Bloody Mary Mix to 1 part of any of them. Stir over ice for the perfect Bloody Mary.

Mr and Mrs 'T' Mai Tai mix

Just like you get them in The Islands. Mix 3 parts Mr and Mrs "T" Mai Tai Mix with 1 part rum in double old fashioned glass of crushed ice. Stir and garnish with pineapple stick and maraschino cherry.

Mr and Mrs 'T' Gimlet mix

For the perfect gimlet — mix 2 parts Mr and Mrs "T" Gimlet Mix with 3 parts of either vodka or gin (or even rum). Froth it in a blender or stir over ice. Garnish with thin lime slice or a green cherry. Umm. Ambrosia.

Mr and Mrs 'T' Whiskey Sour mix

The versatile mix. Use whiskey, scotch, rum — whatever your choice. Mix 2 parts Mr and Mrs "T" Whiskey Sour Mix to 1 part of your favorite spirits. Shake well or stir over ice and garnish with mint, cherry or orange slice.

MONTEZUMA'S OFFICIAL GUIDE TO THE ANCIENT TEQUILA ARTS.

The Aztec Empire. It's long gone. However, modern man is rediscovering its secrets.

A key to the rediscovery is the Sun Stone, a sort of time-capsule that outlines the history of the Aztecs and, according to Montezuma® Tequila, what the Aztecs liked to drink and when they liked to drink it.

Within the inner ring of the Sun Stone are twenty symbols; one for each day of the Aztec week. Each symbol also suggests what kind of drink might be appropriate to serve on that day.

XOCHITL

Montezuma Margarita

The flower symbolizes the last day of the Aztec week, representing the ultimate in true beauty and pleasure. The drink: 2 oz. Montezuma Tequila; ½ oz. Triple Sec; juice ½ lime; pinch of salt; stir in shaker over ice; rub rim of cocktail glass with lime peel and spin in salt; strain shaker into cocktail glass.

Tequila-Pineapple Liqueur. The 3rd day of the Aztec week is symbolized by a house, representing hospitality and at-home entertaining. The drink: fill a jar half way with chunks of ripe pineapple; pour Montezuma Tequila to the brim; add 1 teaspoon sugar (optional); cap jar and place in refrigerator for 24 hours; drain off liquid and serve as an after-dinner liqueur.

Horny Bull™ Cocktail. A horned animal symbolizes the 7th day of the Aztec week, representing high-spirited and casual fun. The drink: 1 oz. Montezuma Tequila over ice in unusual glassware, mason jar, jelly jar, beer mug etc.; fill with fresh orange juice or orange breakfast drink.

Tequila Fizz. The rain symbolizes the 19th day of the Aztec week, representing cool refreshment. The drink: 2 oz. Montezuma Tequila; juice ½ lime; ½ teaspoon sugar; two dashes orange biters; stir in a tall glass over ice; fill with club soda; garnish with lime shell.

Tequila Straight. Water symbolizes the 9th day of the Aztec week, representing simple and uncomplicated pleasure. The drink: Pour 1½ oz. of Montezuma Gold Tequila in shot glass. Put salt on back of thumb; hold a wedge of lime between thumb and 1st finger; lick salt, drink Tequila, bite into lime in one flowing motion.

THE MOST POPULAR OFFENSE...HOW IT WORKS

by Joe McLaughlin
Houston CHRONICLE

The "Houston Option", which has become known as the triple option or the Veer-T, is, simply, a big-play offense.

University of Houston head coach Bill Yeoman and offensive line coach Billy Willingham discovered the offense by accident in the spring of 1964 and since then their ideas have been adopted by many schools across the country.

Basically, the veer places such a demand on the defense that teams are forced to limit the number of alignments and stunts that they will use.

Secondly, it provides the offense with a great deal of flexibility at the snap of the ball. While threatening three running lanes, it also attacks two passing areas. Thirdly, it exploits the mental part of the game. Finally, though the play is varied in its threat, the teaching and understanding on the part of the coaches and players of the offensive unit are not at all difficult.

The inside veer is the basis of the offense (see diagram). It affords the quarterback tremendous flexibility after the snap of the ball. Three options are available to him in his effort to handicap the defensive commitment to run or pass—the handoff to the first back through the line; his own threat off tackle; or the pitch to the trailing back going wide.

On the snap of the ball, the quarterback can hand off to the first back. The key blocker (on the right side, for instance, he would be the right tackle) blocks "down" (or forces to the inside) the first defensive man inside him—either a lineman or linebacker, depending on the opponent's defensive alignment. It is assumed this blocker fulfills his assignment. The quarterback reads the first man outside the offensive tackle. If the man outside (usually the defensive tackle) tackles the dive man, the quarterback pulls the ball out of the dive man's hand. If the defensive tackle does not tackle the dive man, the quarterback hands off to him.

With the dive-man through the line on a fake, the veer quarterback still has several options.

The quarterback then runs the normal option and "reads" the defensive end, either pitching out to the trailing back or keeping the ball and turning upfield. If the defensive end remains stationary or if he attacks the trailing back, the quarterback should keep the ball and turn upfield. If the defensive end comes directly at the quarterback, then the quarterback may pitch to the trailing back going wide.

While this is the basic play, options still abound from it. For example, on a passing play, the quarterback may fake to the dive back and continue running the option along the line of scrimmage as if the play were going to be a run. Then the quarterback may pop a quick pass to the tight end in the "seam" or passing lane between the safety and cornerback. If this pass is completed a couple of times, it forces the safety to remain in his area and not play up close to the line of scrimmage against the run. Thus, when the safety is forced to "stay at home," the running attack again may become fluid.

The pass to the tight end (or a wide receiver) has become a game-breaker in the veer offense.

Although the veer is a run-oriented offense, it is imperative to be able to throw effectively. The passing game is simple and unsophisticated, permitting understanding and maximum repetition. All the basic routes come out of the running (or play) action in the basic offense. The quarterback needs only to worry about a cornerback, a safety or a linebacker force. With this kind of secondary play (say, a normal rotation), the offense does not "key" defensive people. The quarterback watches only the offensive receivers and tries to throw the ball to one of them in the open.

Passing in the veer is related critically to timing. The routes involve movement straight upfield as opposed to curls or outs.

Although it is not a basic veer play, the draw play (see diagram) is nevertheless an integral part of the offense even though veer teams ordinarily do not throw the dropback pass. The draw simply reduces the aggressiveness of the interior linemen and stabilizes the linebackers and interior line play. It also gives the back a chance to work the entire line of scrimmage seeking a hole to run through. The draw play has much the same tone and blocking assignments as the veer counter play or the veer counter option. The draw play itself allows the inside veer to be more effective.

Defensively, there is the burden of stopping each option in the veer one by one. People usually say that eventually the defense catches up to the offense, but as long as a team can average more than 450 yards a game, it is safe to say the defense has not yet caught up to the veer. When operated well and effectively, the veer is a high-yardage, high-scoring offense. While it may be stopped for one or two plays, the third play may go for long yardage. Hence, it is a big-play offense.

Theoretically, there are a couple of disadvantages. A team may force one person to carry the ball more than another, providing the defensive personnel are capable of performing at peak level consistently and that each is better at the key positions along the line than those on offense.

Also, veer teams are running the risk of fumbling more than some other offenses because there are so many options where the ball is being handled more. This is not shown by statistics (the University of Houston, for instance, fumbled only two hand-offs in 12 games in 1974 and both were in the first three games), but in theory it is still a high-risk offense.

Since the veer is not power-oriented and is still dependent on finesse, even at the goal-line, some coaches feel this is a disadvantage in the short-yardage situation. A veer team does not have a third back in the backfield for blocking purposes at or near the goal or in third-and-short situations. Again, this is not proven by facts, but in theory it is so.

In employing the veer, the lone prerequisite in personnel is to have a quarterback who can run and is fairly quick. Obviously, the quarterback is the key man in the offense and his ability to run, of course, is the most important attribute. If the quarterback cannot run, defenses can stop the veer.

Other than the quarterback, the key men are the two running backs, a fast, large tight end and a good split receiver. The veer gives a running back an opportunity to be the best that he can possibly be. If he is an outstanding back, he will excel (i.e., Robert Newhouse). An ordinary running back has been known to gain more than 1,000 yards a season in the veer. The tight end, a good one, will make the veer even more of a big-play offense because of the openings he may find when the defenses are stacked to stop the run. Along the same line, a good wide receiver who can beat a defensive man one-on-one keeps cornerbacks from consistently playing up close against the pitch-out.

In recruiting linemen for the veer offense, size is not important. However, if a team gets the quick and BIG lineman, he is better off than the quick and SMALL lineman. The offensive guards must be good blockers (and most demands are on the left guard who pulls occasionally) and must be quick enough to get to the linebackers (blocking the flow from the pitch side). The tackles must be the next best blockers and the center, the least of all.

Still, the quarterback is the MUST in the veer. He must be quick with his hands, his feet and his mind. Above all, he must be a leader.

Auburn QB Phil Gargis (11) demonstrates the Veer as he gives the ball to his fullback, while he continues to read and carry out his fakes.

The inside veer .....showing the three options open to the quarterback perienced secondary will include a red-shirt soph, 6'-1", 190-pound Tom Fitch (Topeka, Kan.), who was ticketed for a starting role a year ago until injured.

Moore doesn't yet know how much he'll be counting on his freshman, but three of his best incoming rookies would appear to be defensive tackle-nose guard Dennis Balagna (6-3, 250, Kansas City, Mo.), offensive tackle Kirk Tushaus (6'-3", 230, Kansas City, Kan.) and Bobby Bass.

Bass, turned down by Nebraska, broke a number of Johnny Rodgers' rushing records while playing at Benson High in Omaha and he certainly figures to help immediately as a specialist with his 4.5 speed.

Speedy Mike Harris, who has 4.6 speed and is 6'-5", 223lbs., will make a dent in many lines.

tionally in kickoff returns for Tampa last fall.

A second Tampa transfer expected to make a bid, even though he plays the position best stocked in talent at KSU, is 6'-3", 230-pound linebacker Mike Woods, who didn't enroll until Fall.

Another transfer who will definitely start is 6'-5", 270-pound offensive tackle Chris Haag, from Southern Mississippi.

K-State signed one of the Midlands most-sought running backs when in late June it landed Mike Woodfin, 5'-11", 170-pound flyer from Highland Park High School in Topeka. He had a 325-yard game as a prep senior and was the state sprint champ in both the indoor 60 and outdoor 100.

MISSOURI

Taylor wasn't the only Mizzou soph to make his presence felt in the spring.

At defensive tackle, red-shirt Keith Morrissey, a 6'-4", 225-pounder from Gallatin, Mo., who arrived on the Columbia campus as a quarterback, moved to the top on the left side, climbing past Tom Cooper, a senior who had been moved from nose guard to bolster the tackle crew. An ex-linebacker, 6'-4", 232-pound Don Cole (Springfield, Mo.) has a chance to play at the other defensive tackle opening as the Bengals attempt to shore up a unit that was inconsistent a year ago.

In backup roles, watch sophs Pete Woods (6'-4", 200, University City, Mo.) at quarterback and Randy Weppler (6'-5", 235, Liberty, Mo.) at center. Woods obviously isn't going to dislodge veteran Steve Pisarkiewicz, but he is an excellent option runner as well as the owner of a strong throwing arm.

Junior college transfers bidding for playing time include defensive tackle Curtis Kirkland (6'-5", 230, Gary, Ind), linebacker Tim Helm (6'-2", 215, Decatur, Ill.) and running back Curtis Brown (6'-1", 190, St. Charles, Mo.).

The Tigers seldom rush freshman into battle early, but defensive end Steve Hamilton (6'-5", 235, St. Louis, Mo.) and wide receiver Charlie Burgie (6'-1", 170, Dayton, Ohio), a 9.3 sprinter, have excellent credentials.

bidding at quarterback for the Huskers, who are replacing David Humm. Randy Garcia (6'-3", 189) is a talented thrower, too, and was LA City Player of the Year the season following Ferragamo's prep graduation.

Almost all of the newcomers likely to fit in at Nebraska this Fall have had a season of red-shirting, including 6'-5", 222-pound defensive end Ray Phillips, a cinch starter on the left side from the JC ranks.

The Huskers have at least two exceptional sophs in the interior offensive line in tackle Bob Hayes (6'-6", 260, Bakersfield, Calif.) and Stan Waldemore (6'-4", 242, Belleville, N.J.)

In the backfield, two true sophs, one-time Iowa prep phenom Curtis Craig (5'-10", 183) of Davenport at wingback and 6'-2", 216-pound Dody Donnell of Hackensack, N.J., are going to play.

Fullback Dennis Wright fits well into Coach Bud Moore's plans at Kansas.

KANSAS STATE

Hatcher, who battled another sophomore, Arthur Bailey, for the No. 1 job all spring, played strictly with the JV a year ago since the Cats were set on the varsity level at quarterback. He had exceptional games against Wichita State (354 yards and two TDs passing) and Tulsa (253 yards passing and 41 yards rushing). Hatcher kept up the same pace in the spring, throwing for nearly 58 per cent accuracy in four major scrimmages.

Iowa State wasn't the only school to benefit from Tampa's withdrawal from college football.

The Wildcats just might have the Big Eight's most explosive new receiver in 6'-5", 223-pound slotback Mike Harris, a Columbus, Ohio native with 4.6 speed who ranked eighth na-

AMOS ALONZO STAGG

The Grand Old Man Of The Midway

Seventy years of dedication to the development of young men through coaching, the most lifetime football coaching victories, a major university's football stadium named after him, a "Greatest Living American" award by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the first man to be selected to the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame as both player and coach, all preceded by his selection to this nation's first All-America team in 1889 conspire to make it nearly impossible to know where to begin when praising Amos Alonzo Stagg. Worse, the above merely scratches the surface of his accomplishments.

Unquestionably one of the most inventive minds to ever draw "X"s and "O"s, Stagg is responsible for so much modern football strategy that the great Knute Rockne, when asked where he got his system, fired back, "from Stagg—all football comes from Stagg." Research shows that to be only a slight exaggeration of truth. An abbreviated list of his major contributions is enough to get the point across. He invented: the huddle, the onside kick; the quick kick; the short punt formation; the hand off from a fake kick; the numbering of players; the padded goalposts; the charging sled; the tackling dummy (an old mattress at first) and wind sprints for practices; single and double flanker pass patterns and most aspects of the modern T formation.

Stagg's designing of the T formation's foundations was encouraged by the presence of Walter Eckersall. Universally accorded the title as one of the two greatest pre-pass quarterbacks, (Charley Daly of Harvard is the other), his talent gave life to Stagg's ingenuity. "When Eckersall came to Chicago in 1903," Stagg recalled, "I started faking and pivoting. Then, in 1905 I had him fake, pivot and then run around end." It was the first end sweep by a quarterback.

Carrying his innovations further down this new path, Stagg initiated the delayed buck, the man in motion and, in 1906, a fake hand off and a forward pass. This deception worked so well, Stagg reversed it and instituted the first fake pass topped off by a run, otherwise known as the option play. Coach Stagg originated that wrinkle for a 1908 game with Minnesota and his Maroons lambasted the confused Gophers 29-0.

Inflicting the unexpected on a foe is good for an advantage, but Stagg's teams were also known to be the best and hardest drilled in the Big 10. Born the sixth of eight children to a poor New Jersey family, Stagg's familiarity with hard work commenced when he put himself through high school, from which he graduated in three years.

After a year's preparation at Phillips Exeter Academy, Amos entered Yale Divinity in 1889. Physically unprepared for the drastic New England winters, Stagg eventually collapsed from malnutrition and the cold. Happily, a friend took charge of Stagg's recovery and found him a decent paying job as a waiter.

History doesn't record how profi-

"More victories and greater tactical inventiveness than any other coach, plus vital contributions to baseball, swimming and track" is a mere introduction to a man who filled each of his 102 years with unique and noble deeds.

cient a waiter Stagg was, but as a 5'7" 145 pound freshman end, he made the first All-America team ever selected. A superb athlete, Stagg's collegiate baseball career was equally auspicious. A masterful pitcher, "Lonnie" Stagg hurled Yale to five championships, maintaining a lifetime 17-3 edge over rival Harvard and, in one performance, whiffing 20 Princeton Tigers.

In fact, Stagg was good enough to elicit the astounding offer of $4,200 to pitch for the New York Giants. As a self-proclaimed "invincible amateur," Stagg declined the opportunity to play professional baseball. But the mammoth amount of money offered spurred one newspaperman to editorialize, "So long as a pitcher gets $4,200 for six months and a preacher gets $600 for a year, so long will there be good pitching and bad preaching."

The lucrative offer didn't swing Stagg into baseball's camp, but his unquenchable love for sports and the opportunity it gave him to teach young men veered him out of Yale Divinity School and into the International YMCA College (later Springfield College) in Springfield, Mass., where Lonnie received his first exposure to coaching.

Reflecting in later years on the switch from preaching to teaching, Stagg mused, "The coaching profession is one of the noblest and farthest reaching in building manhood. No man is too good to be an athletic coach for youth."

During the time Stagg was in Springfield, John D. Rockefeller was building a university in Chicago and the new school's president was one of Stagg's old Yale professors, Dr. William Rainey Harper. Harper wanted Stagg to head his athletic department and after receiving assurances that he could combine the athletic and physical education departments, Stagg accepted the assignment.

Soft-spoken and smooth, Yukon Jack is unlike any Canadian spirit you've ever tasted. Its hundred-proof potency simmers just below the surface.

Straight, on the rocks or mixed, Yukon Jack is a taste born of hoary nights when lonely men struggle to keep their fires lit and their cabins warm.

On defense, sophs expected to contribute include linebackers Larry Young (6', 220, Jersey City, N.J.) and Jim Wightman (6'-2", 213, Omaha, Neb.) and defensive backs Ted Harvey (5'-10", 165, Lexington, Neb.), Larry Valasek (5'-10", 160, Silver Creek, Neb.) and Kent Smith (6'-2", 193, Thief River Falls, Minn.).

The Huskers have made less use of freshmen than any school in the league since the first-year players were given the OK in 1972, but wide receiver Ken Brown (5'-11", 180, Cincinnati, Ohio) might be in a position where he'll get an early look in '75.

Nebraska quarterback hopeful, Vince Ferragamo.

OKLAHOMA

It's doubtful if any school in America has the frosh-soph talent the Sooners have gathered.

In addition to Dalke (Hobart, Okla.) at least one other soph backer who has never played a down at OU, 6'-3", 205-pound Russ Williamson of Dallas, is a potential starter.

Sims isn't the only runner of note among the newcomers. Horace Ivory (5'-11", 193, Fort Worth, Texas), a JC transfer who sat out the '74 season with injuries, is ready to bid now and also owns the blazing 4.5-type speed OU seems to have in all its backs. Fullback Mike Gaither (6'-3", 230, Tulsa Memorial) and halfback Ken King (6', 190, Clarendon, Tex.) are only two of a stable of frosh backs carrying the "blue-chip" label.

Norman-bred halfback Greg Byram

Fleet-footed Horace Ivy will give the Sooner backfield added strength.

(6'-3", 175) was a high school all-American, too, although he could go to defense. A walk-on, fullback James Culbreath (6', 209, Haverford, Pa.) has a chance to help, too.

After Sims, perhaps the freshman with the best chance to play is 6'-4", 230-pound Victor Hicks of Lubbock, Tex., who may get a shot at one of the few positions not stacked with lettermen, tight end. Ditto, at linebacker, Greg Roberts (6'-4", 230, Nacogdoches, Tex.).

On any other teams, sophs like defensive ends Terry Sherman (6'-3", 210, New Orleans) and Victor Brown (6'-4", 220, Newark, N.J.), defensive tackle Harvey Johnson (6'-5", 215, Tulsa) and cornerbacks Frank Rohr (5'-11", 178, Tulsa) and Terry Peters (6', 178, Pauls Valley, Okla.) would be starters. At OU, they are patiently awaiting a chance to prove themselves.

be afraid to put new youngsters under pressure in '75.

If Loggins can't fit in at tight end, maybe incoming frosh Mike Edwards (6'-3", 210, Plante City, Fla.) can.

Two other freshmen to remember are halfback Gerald Green (6'-1", 180, Purcell, Okla.) and fullback Steve Stephens (6'-2", 223, Tampa, Fla.)

OSU went for almost as much help in the JC ranks as Colorado and defensive ends Bobby Douglas (6'-2", 210, Tulsa) and Lorenzo Turner (6'-4", 216, Rock Island, Ill.), defensive tackles Chris Dawson (6'-4", 240, Shawnee, Okla.) and Clint Terrell (6'-6", 270, Chicago), linebacker Don Edwards (6'-3", 218, Junction City, Kan.), defensive back Clifton Sullivan (6'-2", 180) and offensive tackle William Miller (6'-2", 240, Henderson, Tex.) all look like they can play.

ing the basketball team, the track team and, of course, the baseball team. As in all his endeavors, A.A. brought his special elan to the task and left his mark on each sport. In track and field, Stagg specialized in developing quarter milers and he introduced, among others, the first of this nation's great black sprinters, Binga Dismond. Amos was four times appointed to coach the U.S. Olympic track squad and he was a five time member of the U.S. Olympic Committee.

Baseball can thank Stagg for the head-first slide and the batting cage, while Japan can thank Amos for baseball. A. A. led the first tour of Japan by a U.S. nine. Even swimming was improved by the Stagg touch. He invented the trough around the pool that handles the overflow.

One contribution Stagg made to sports hardly deserves mention with most of his other accomplishments, but it will likely draw the praise of many. With his own straight razor, Stagg ensured that his 1898 football team would be the first clean shaven squad in University of Chicago history.

In the more obvious category of wins-losses, Stagg brought his Chicago footballers seven Big 10 crowns, four of those winners completing the season unsullied by a loss. The 1905 eleven, with 5'7" Walter Eckersall at the helm, accumulated 212 points while allowing a scant five. Highlighting that perfect 9-0 season was a 2-0 triumph over Fielding "Hurry Up" Yost's Michigan contingent. That safety represented the total allotment of points Michigan relinquished that year.

Subsequent titles came in 1907, '08, 1913 and 1924, Stagg's last in the Big 10. From then on his Chicago fortunes waned, reaching their nadir in 1929 with the ascension of Robert M. Hutchins as the school's president. Hutchins' goal was the ultimate intellectual institution and football didn't fit his poorly balanced conception of a university's function.

By 1932 Stagg's mandatory retirement as an active coach at age 70 was decreed. A. A. didn't feel like retiring and he knew there were many good years left in him. Indeed, a picture of his health can be inferred by his success at a sport new to Stagg. He took up golf at age 70 and within a year he was shooting in the 70's! Stagg was decidedly unhappy with his impending retirement, the more so as there was a youngster, a freshman, on that 1932 team that Stagg expected to be of great assistance in producing a winner. The halfback Stagg wished to stay around and coach to maturity was Jay Berwanger, the first Heisman Trophy winner.

Disappointment at having to step down from his forty year post was mitigated somewhat by a trip with that last Chicago team to New Haven and a meeting with his alma mater, heavily favored Yale. Stagg's boys staged a mild upset with a 7-7 tie and humorist/poet George E. Phair penned his thoughts.

Alonzo Stagg, a bright young lad
Came back to dear old Yale
And all the afternoon he had
The Bulldog turning pale.

Ah, what a coach that kid will be
When he has reached maturity.

Phair couldn't imagine how prophetic his words were. Rather than retire in the bloom of his youth, Stagg accepted a post as head coach at the College of the Pacific in Stockton, California. The ambitious new head coach chortled "I am going west and I feel like I am about twenty-one years old instead of 71. I am as happy as a college sophomore with his first football letter."

The task at COP (now UOP) was considerable as the small school faced such powers as USC, St. Mary's and UCLA. Undaunted, Stagg brought COP its first conference championship in 1936 (unscored upon in conference play) and in 1943, at age 81, Stagg guided his squad to the Rose Bowl against mighty USC. The Trojans finally succeeded when they emerged with a 6-0 Pasadena victory, but nobody could argue the choice of Stagg as Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and as Man of the Year by the Football Writers of America.

Stagg continued at COP until he was 84, then he began assisting his two head coach sons, one in Pennsylvania, the other in Oregon. In 1951, at 89, Stagg helped Amos Jr. bring his Susquehanna team an undefeated season. That year Stagg was inducted into the football Hall of Fame. Properly sated, Stagg retired to his Stockton home.

In 1965, at 102 years of age, Amos Alonzo Stagg died, leaving a legacy grand enough to make him a legend in his own lifetime. His 314 victories speak for themselves as do the multitudinous contributions to football history. The true testimony, however, must come from a coach's players, those who know him most intimately. About Stagg, one of his former pupils put it this way, "Stagg's hold on his squads was so remarkable that we played not for the school, the girl friend, not for publicity—not for anything or anybody but Stagg."

QUESTIONS

1. A team is lined up in punt formation. When the ball is snapped back, the punter muffs the snap and then picks the ball up and runs with it. After he has carried the ball 10 yards past the line of scrimmage, he is hemmed in by defensive players, so he stops and successfully punts the ball. Ruling: This is a legal kick.

2. An injured player, for whom a time-out has been called, must leave the game for one play or else his team is charged with a time-out.

3. On an offensive formation, a wing-back starts in motion backwards, and then just before the snap, the quarterback steps backward with one foot. Ruling: This is an illegal shift.

4. During a free time-out, only one player at a time may confer with the coaching staff at the team area.

5. All replaced players must leave the playing field only at the sideline of their team area. Leaving the field by the end line is a foul.

6. On a scrimmage play the runner is hit, and as he stumbles and to regain his balance, he puts his hand on the ground. He regains his balance and continues to advance the ball. Ruling: The ball is dead where the runner's hand touched the ground.

7. On a try-for-point, the quarterback who intends to hold the ball for the kicker has one knee on the ground, and he fumbles the snap from center. He raises up, retrieves the ball and runs it into the end zone for a two-point try. Ruling: The ball is dead when the quarterback fumbled the ball since he had a knee on the ground when he first had possession of the ball.

8. On a kick-off starting the game, the kicker kicks the ball before the referee has blown his whistle and has declared the ball ready for play. The opponents return the ball for a touchdown. Ruling: The opponents have a choice of refusing the penalty for putting the ball in play before it is ready or taking the touchdown.

9. On a try-for-point the ball is blocked by a defensive player and bounds laterally, where the kicker picks up the ball and runs it into the end zone. Ruling: This is a successful two-point play.

10. On a scrimmage play the runner intends to sweep wide, and is hit and fumbles. A defensive player recovers the ball in the field of play on the three-yard line, but he has one foot out-of-bounds when he recovers the ball that was clearly inbounds. Ruling: Ball belongs to the offensive player.

ANSWERS

1. True. A scrimmage kick may be made by the offensive team before a change of possession, either behind or beyond the line of scrimmage.

2. True. To provide protection for players, the rule makers wisely insisted that if a time-out is taken for any player, he must leave the game for at least one play or else his team is charged with a time-out. Teams like to save their time-outs as much as possible, so almost without exception, the injured player will leave the field where he can be properly checked on the sideline.

3. True. If two players are in motion at the same time, both players must come to a stop for one second before a legal play can be run.

4. True. This is true during both a free time-out charged to a team or during a television time-out. However, there is no restriction on several players coming near the sideline and having the coach communicate with them in the interval between the downs. The restriction only applies during a free time-out or a television time-out.

5. True. The ball remains alive when it will be held or is held for a place kick. It then may be kicked, passed or advanced.

6. False. The ball remains alive when any part of the runner's body, except his hands or feet, touches the ground.

7. False. The ball remains alive when a player shall put a ball in play until it is declared ready for play, and the ball remains dead.

8. False. No player shall put a ball in play until it is declared ready for play, and the ball remains dead.

9. False. The ball becomes dead when it becomes certain that a scrimmage kick on a try will not score a point. It is treated differently than a field goal attempt, or a punt on a scrimmage play.

10. True. When a player is out-of-bounds and touches the ball in the field of play, the ball is dead at the spot of such touching.

THE NEBRASKA GRAIN-ALCOHOL PROGRAM

"Food and Fuel for the Future"

Gasahol is a motor fuel consisting of a blend of 10% Agriculturally derived ethyl alcohol and 90% unleaded gasoline. Gasahol provides higher octane than regular and unleaded gasolines. EPA approved for 1975 cars.

Nebraska has been the first state in the nation to:

- 1) Conduct a Two Million Mile Road Test using an alternative motor fuel—GASOHOL.
- 2) Conduct a Consumer Acceptance Test & Marketing Survey using an alternative fuel and selling it (GASOHOL) to the public.

GRAIN ALCOHOL—A renewable source of energy!

Automobile dealers in Nebraska are contributing a large measure of help to the University of Nebraska athletic program through the loan of courtesy cars.

Like other programs which are a part of the Cornhusker booster group activities, this project enables the Nebraska Athletic Department to make greater use of its funds.

These sports-minded dealers around the state have earned a great debt of gratitude from the University of Nebraska Athletic Department. They are an important part of the "team" that includes players, coaches, administration, faculty, staff, students, alumni, Husker Educational Award group, Touchdown Club, Extra Point Club, Beef Club and the courtesy car program.

HOWELL THEATRE

— Presents —

AN ALL AMERICAN SEASON

1975 - 1976

HOWELL THEATRE

LONG DAY'S JOURNEY INTO NIGHT

BY EUGENE O'NEILL

The past haunts the tragic Tyrone family in this deep, beautiful study of that perverse need of human beings, in their shame, envy, and self-reproach, to destroy those they love.

October 17, 18, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25.

THE CRUCIBLE

BY ARTHUR MILLER

A historically accurate dramatization of the climate of repression which shadowed all of life in the Salem of 1690 and helped to create a chaos of superstition and hysteria.

December 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

BY MOSS HART & GEORGE S. KAUFMAN

A whimsical comedy of an improbable family of mavericks whose gentle lives recapture some of the innocence and flair of America in the 1930's.

February 27, 28, March 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

A STREETCAR NAMED DESIRE

BY TENNESSEE WILLIAMS

A tragic and effective drama which ranks as one of the greatest in our theatre. The play reveals to the very depths, the character of a woman whose life has been undermined by her romantic illusions.

April 23, 24, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31.

Remember the House at 1520 R?

Remember it as the Phi Mu sorority? Or International House? As the Faculty Club? Or a fraternity annex?

Well now the house at 1520 R would like to be remembered as Alumni House . . . A place for NU alumni, students, faculty and friends to meet and exchange ideas. A place where alumni reunions, tours, clubs and workshops are born. A place to make the alum visiting campus feel "at home."

The house at 1520 R . . . Remember it as the new headquarters for the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Alumni Association.

It's OPEN HOUSE at the ALUMNI HOUSE today, after the game. Come tour our new house, sip some coffee and visit with friends.

NEBRASKA SPELLS "SPORTSMANSHIP"

The University of Nebraska is known and respected all over the nation for its red-attired fans, as well as its football teams.

Nebraska fans also have a nation-wide reputation for good sportsmanship, at home and away.

"Big League"—that's the way Nebraska teams and fans have acquitted themselves in past seasons, and that's the same goal for 1975.

The University of Nebraska urges all 1975 fans to continue this fine tradition of sportsmanship by extending courtesy to the visiting teams and officials.

All of us on the Cornhusker Staff salute our fans as the greatest in the nation and thank you for your support and sportsmanship.

Yours for Nebraska,

Bob Devaney

Band Will March to "Academy Awards" Theme

The Cornhusker Marching Band will open today's pre-game festivities with a fanfare to ignite the "Big Red" spirit. As the down-field march quickly opens into the Nebraska "N," the Band will fill the stadium with "No Place like Nebraska."

After saluting the visitors from the University of Indiana, the Marching Red will proclaim "Everything's Coming Up Roses." And following the National Anthem, the Cornhusker musicians will form the University letters while playing "Hail Varsity."

Music from the Academy Awards will be featured in the halftime presentation. The Band will march to such motion picture winners as "Over the Rainbow" from the Wizard of Oz, "Born Free" and "The Way We Were." Charla Jean Willson will perform to the 1939 winner, "The Continental." Also included in the halftime show are tunes from the musical hit "Oliver" and a concert arrangement of "Shaft."

TV service technicians name Zenith for the two things you want most in color TV.

I. Best Picture.

In a recent nationwide survey of independent TV service technicians, Zenith was named, more than any other brand, as the color TV with the best picture.

Question: In general, of the color TV brands you are familiar with, which one would you say has the best overall picture?

Answers:

Zenith.....	36%
Brand A.....	20%
Brand B.....	10%
Brand C.....	7%
Brand D.....	6%
Brand E.....	3%
Brand F.....	2%

Brand H.....	2%
Brand I.....	1%
Other Brands.....	3%
About Equal.....	11%
Don't Know.....	4%

Note: Answers total over 100% due to multiple responses.

II. Fewest Repairs.

In the same survey, the service technicians named Zenith as the color TV needing the fewest repairs. By more than 2-to-1 over the next brand.

For survey details, write to the Vice President, Consumer Affairs, Zenith Radio Corporation, 1900 N. Austin Avenue, Chicago, IL 60639.

Question: In general, of the color TV brands you are familiar with, which one would you say requires the fewest repairs?
